ANALYSIS

Presented By: Davud Muradli

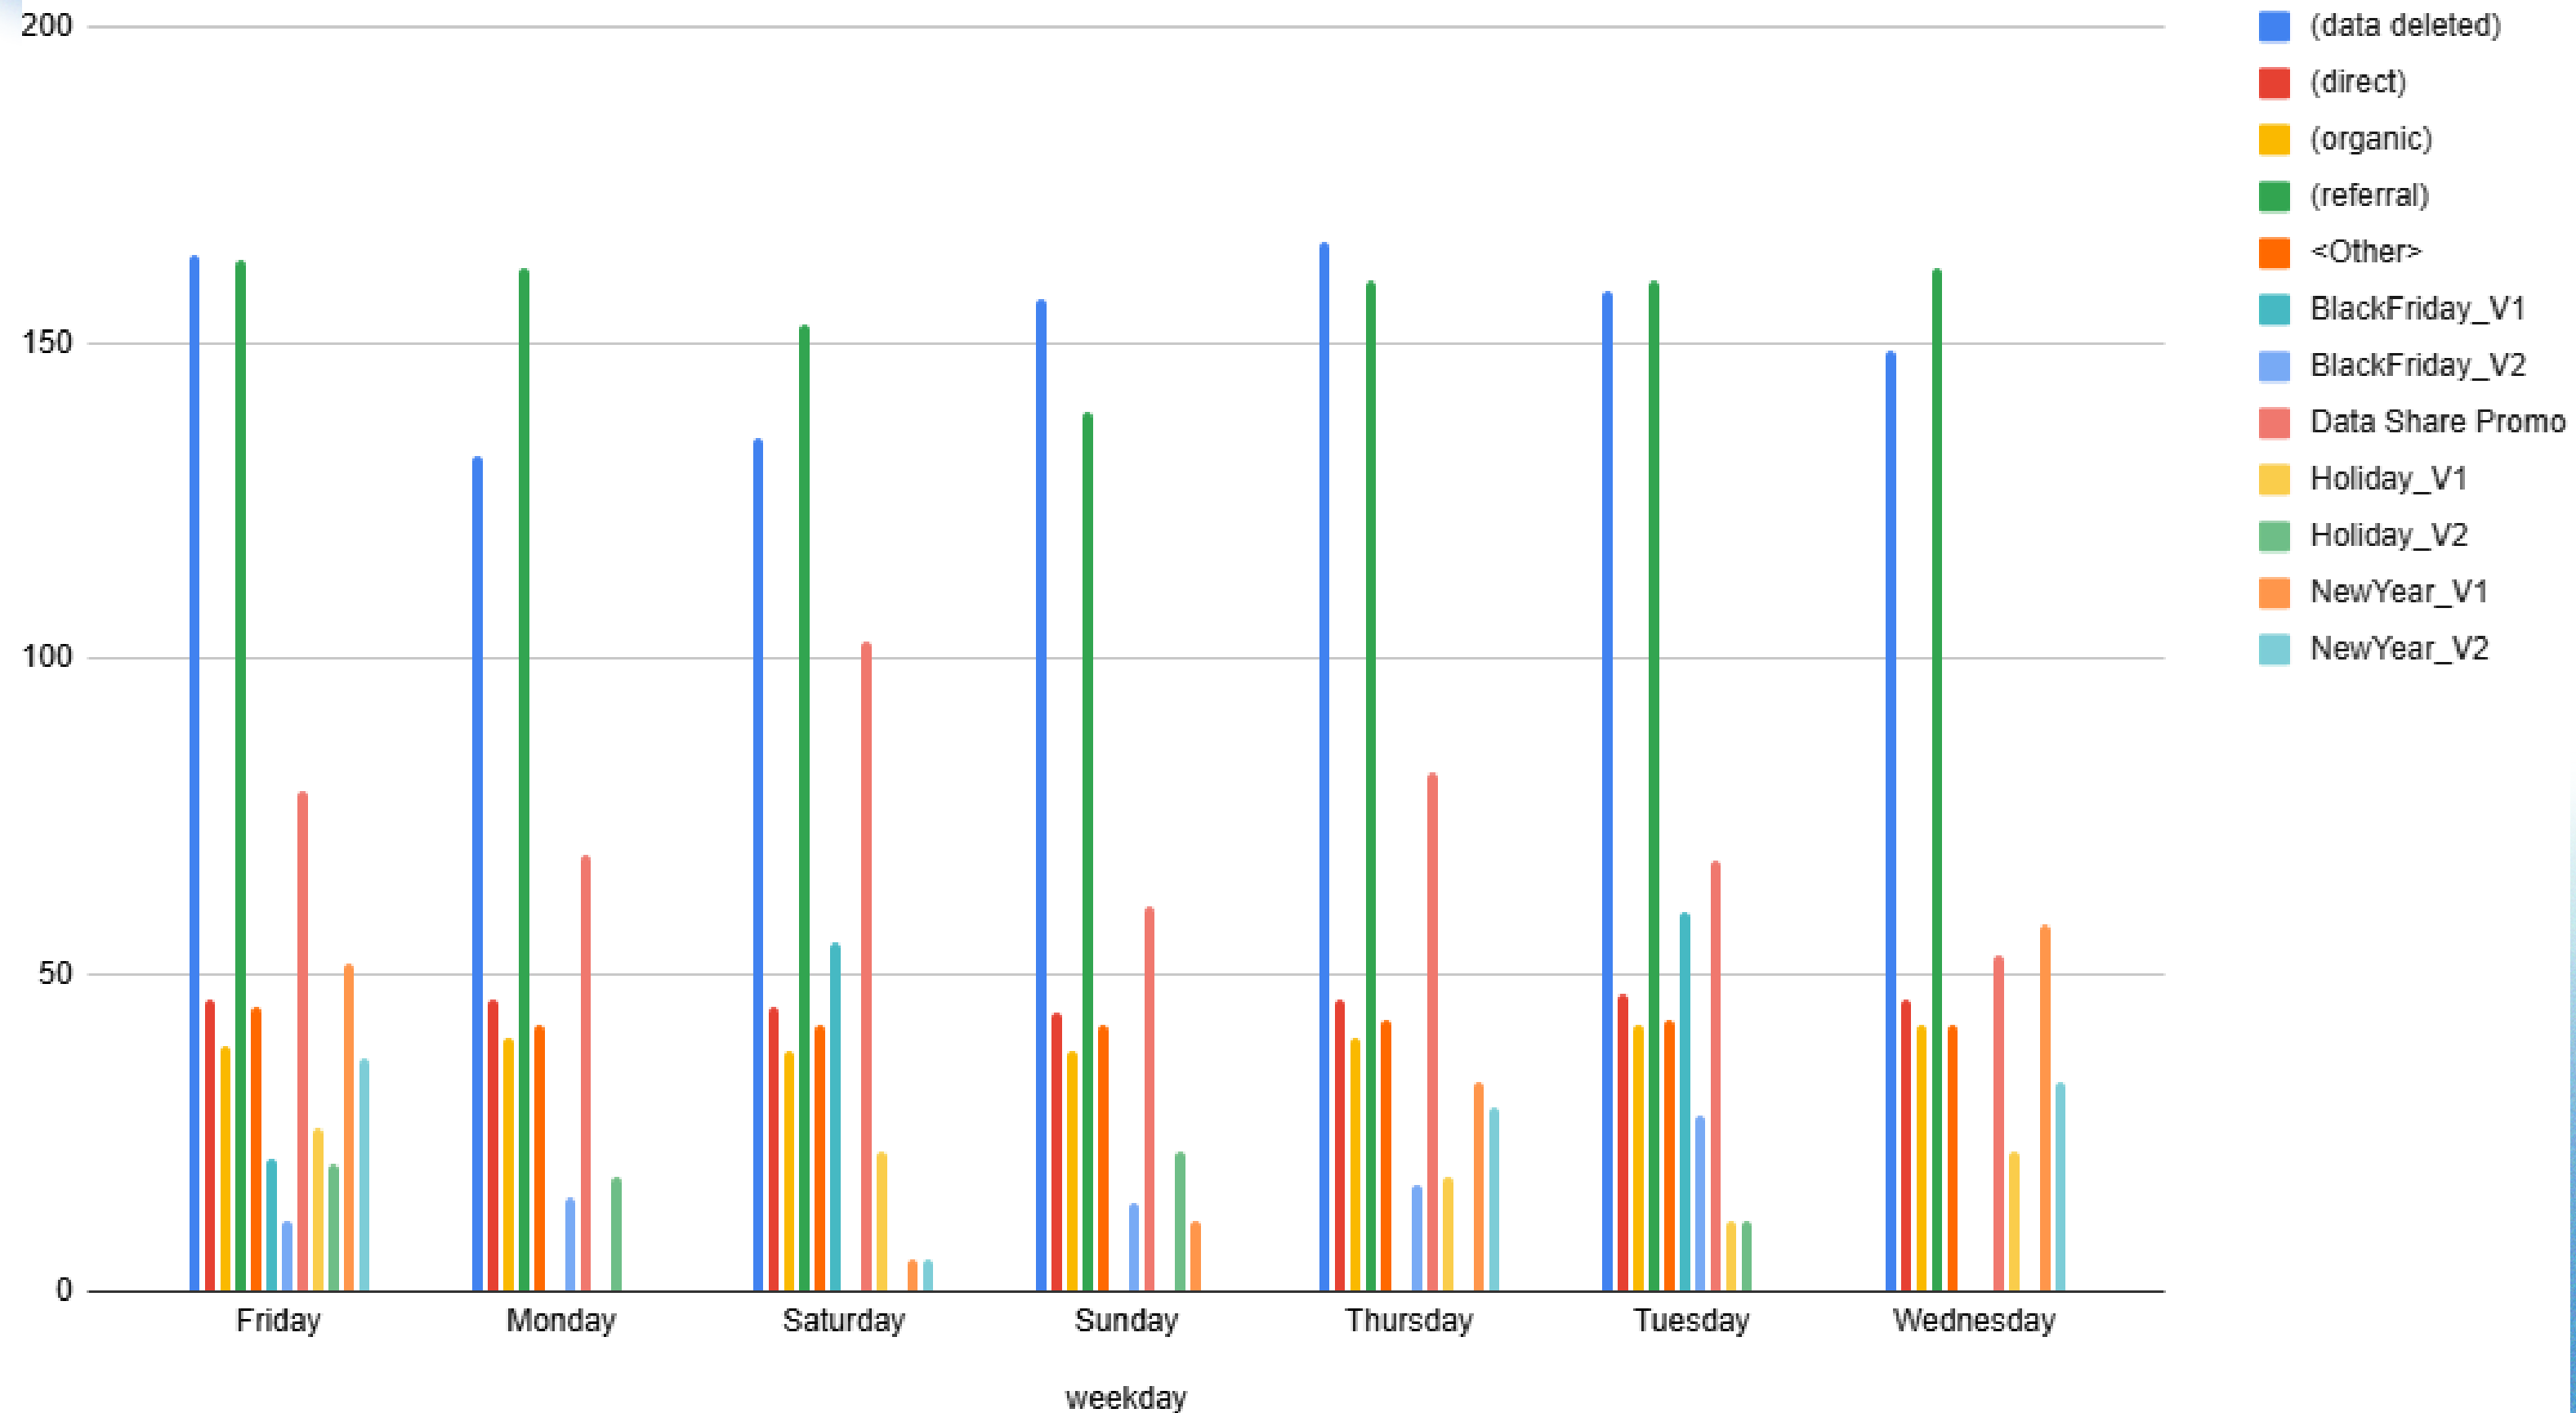

MEDIAN SECONDS SPENT

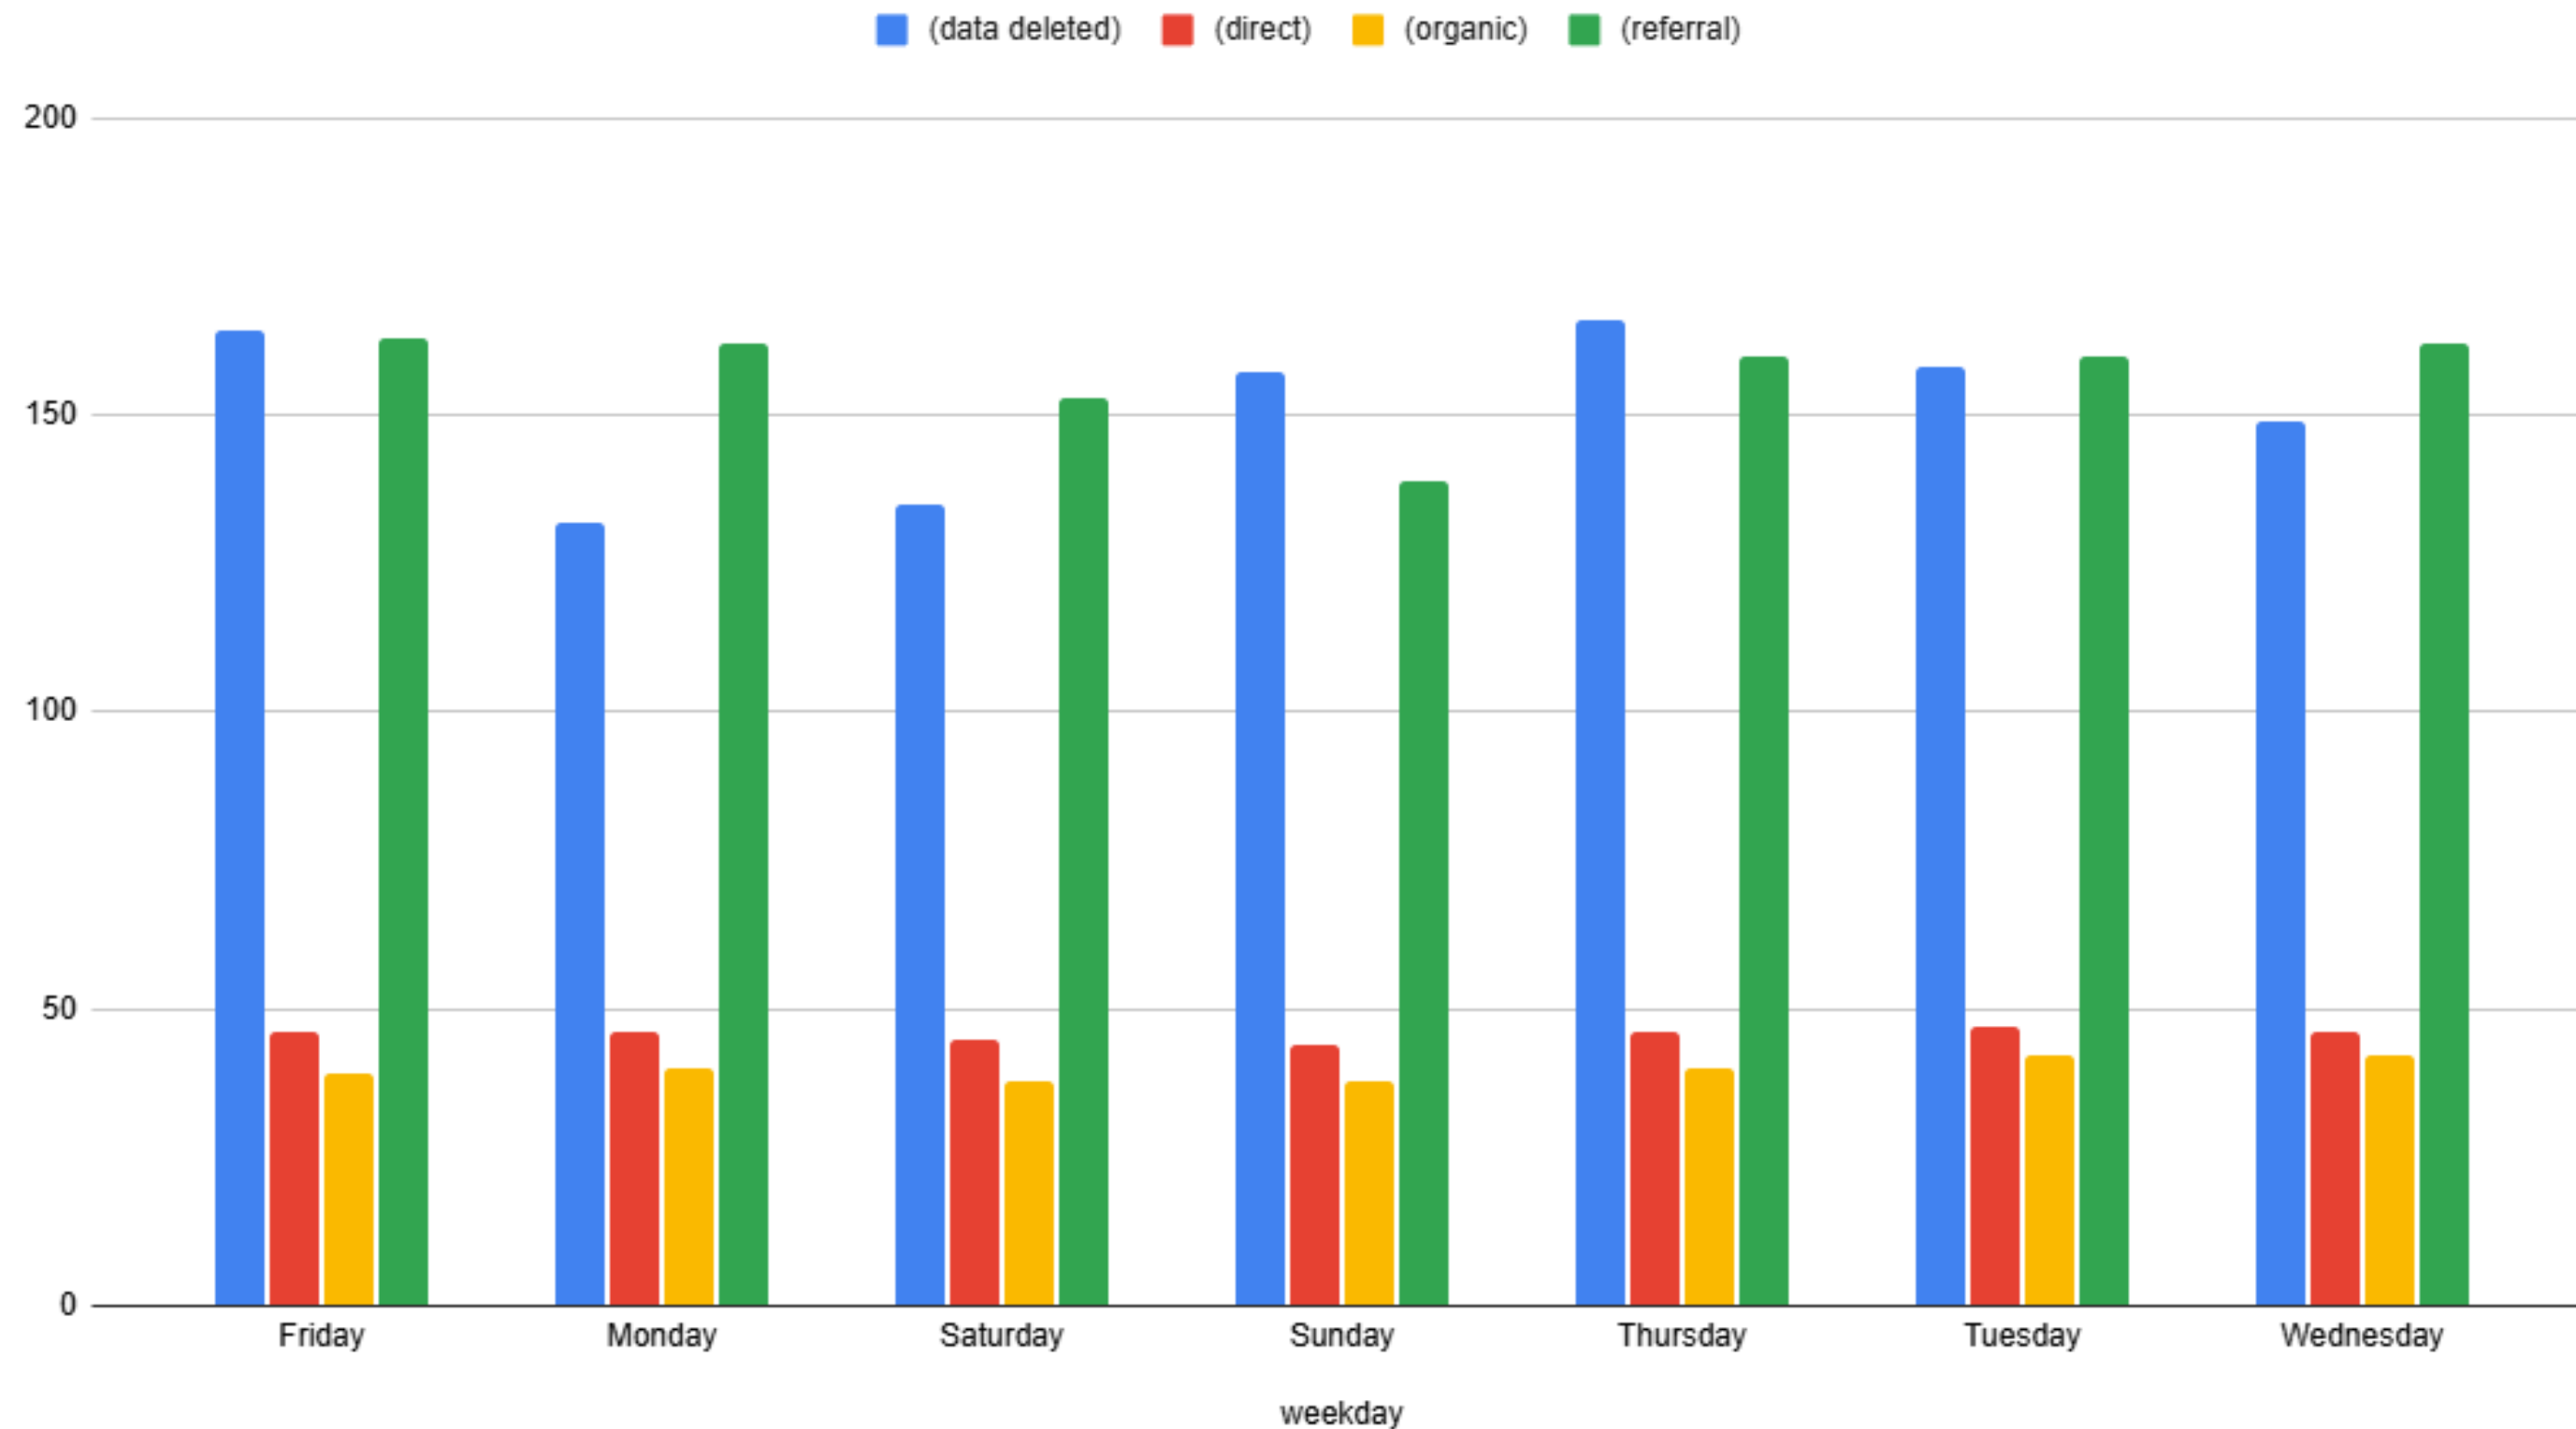

- DIFFERENCES ARE SMALL, WEEKDAY HAS LIMITED IMPACT ON BROWSING BEHAVIOR.
- USERS SPEND SLIGHTLY MORE TIME ON TUESDAYS AND MONDAYS, WHILE THURSDAYS HAVE THE LOWEST ENGAGEMENT.

PROMOTIONS

- REFERRAL AND 'DATA DELETED' TRAFFIC SHOW THE HIGHEST ENGAGEMENT
- DIRECT AND ORGANIC SHORTER

TOP 4 PROMOTIONS

- REFERRAL BEST
- ORGANIC AND DIRECT WORSE

INSIGHTS

- Tuesdays show the highest engagement
- Thursdays are lowest
- Differences across weekdays are small (~40–45 sec)
- Referral traffic drives the longest sessions

LIMITATIONS

- No real session IDs
- Many short sessions (bounce effect)
- Campaign attribution missing
- Median hides extreme engagement

CONCLUSION

Overall, weekday has limited impact on engagement, while traffic source plays a much stronger role.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- analyze conversion rates by weekday
- compare device types
- investigate bounce sessions
